TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE HOW PEOPLE PERCEIVE MENTAL ILLNESS.

Protection & Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness (PAIMI) Advisory Council

ABOUT DRWV

Disability Rights of West Virginia (DRWV) is a private, non-profit agency dedicated to protecting and advocating for the legal rights of West Virginians with disabilities. We are designated as West Virginia's Protection and Advocacy System (P&A).

THE PAIMI ACT

- President Ronald Reagan signed the Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness (PAIMI) Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C. 10801).
- The PAIMI act is implemented through P&A systems nationwide.
- The PAIMI program is administered by the Center for Mental Health Services, US Department of Health and Human Services.
- A key component of the PAIMI Act was to establish an advisory council whose responsibility was to provide P&A's information about issues relating to individuals with disabilities.
- The PAIMI program investigate incidents of abuse and neglect of people with mental illness.
- Protect and advocate for the rights of people with mental illness.

PAIMI ADVISORY COUNCIL (PAC)

- The PAC is charged with providing P&As information about issues related to individuals with mental illness.
- They provide independent advice and recommendations to the P&A system.

- They work jointly with the Board of Directors of the P&A in the development of priorities and objectives.
- They participate in the P&A's annual reporting process.
- The Chair of the Advisory Council shall be a member of the Governing Board.
